

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

This country already suffers from a paucity of points of view on national and international matters. Without this diversity of media sources how can this country ever formulate a discerning response to critical national issues and policies???????